

TSCTI is now CMMi Level 2 Certified

Last month has been a month of great events for TSCTI. TSCTI has been rated among one of the fastest growing companies in the USA. The Channel Awards are the most sought after awards in the industry, recognizing excellence and exceptional performance. TSCTI has been rated among the 100 fast growth companies in USA. In addition to Channel, TSCTI got similar ratings by two other sources - Inc magazine rating and Software Magazine rating. These all rating show us our way and our current position among the fastest growing companies. The aim is to reach higher however not to compromise on the quality. TSCTI would like to continue this trend and get more and more recognition by doing good work and delivering the best. Thanks to all our associate, employees, consultants and partners for achieving this

Recent Federal Wins

Won Federal Contract from Naval Medical Center, San Diego

Under this contract, TSCTI will provide all ongoing operational technical support required by Navy Medical Center San Diego, Information Management Department (NMCSD/IMD). The support involves technical areas of web development, database administration and project Management support. TSCTI will provide reliable, consistent, disciplined, highest-quality, state-of- the-art, technical support for web-related NMCSD operations, permitting NMCSD IM subject-matter experts to become more productive using web technologies. The emphasis of this technology will permit NMCSD more efficient and secure delivery of health-information services to its customers. Technologies involved includes Sharepoint, . Net, Coldfusion, XML and Oracle PL/SQL

National Institutes of Health - US Department of Health

TSCTI bags an Online Web Catalog Management system project from National Institute of Health. TSCTI is developing online web-based catalog management system for NIH. This will enable customers to go to NIH website and order products from NIH warehouse. Once solution is implemented, it will also help NIH to manage web based product catalog.

TSCTI won the staffing vendor ship of EDS/HP which will provide more opportunities to us. EDS/HP provide on average 1600 requirements per year.

TSCTI won two contracts with Department of Labor, Office of Inspector General

- a) TSCTI is developing portal for OIG which will be based on MOSS 2007. This portal will be used by 400 employees in 4 different locations to collaborate and handle their internal communication and sharing of the information. Portal will have in-built workflow management. Solution will also be integrated with Microsoft Outlook so that employees can receive and send email from portal. Employees can also search for documents attach with emails.
- b) Under this contract TSCTI is planning, developing, and implementing a solution to integrate Microsoft's System Center Operations Manager (SCOM) 2007 and System Center Configuration Manager (SCCM) 2007 products into the OIG network infrastructure. System will provide a mechanism for monitoring availability and operability of client servers and notebooks in support of critical data systems and applications. involved includes Sharepoint, . Net, Coldfusion, XML and Oracle PL/SQL.

State & Other Awarded Projects

TSCTI bags a contract from the Department of Financial Services (DFS), Division of Worker's Compensation (DWS), State of Florida for the support and maintenance of the FileNet based Optical Fast Flow Information System (OFFIS)

TSCTI will be analyzing, designing, programming, testing, training, and implementing releases for the Optical Fast Flow Information System (OFFIS) enhancements and maintenance, and assisting in ensuring the application's integrity and stability. OFFIS project environment will have FileNet IDM Desktop programming, FileNet workflow programming, FileNet Capture programming, Workflow queues programming, VB.Net, VB6.0, Crystal Reports, Adobe Programming, Programming with Imaging controls, Oracle, SQL server, DB2, FileNet Imaging services maintenance, IDM Desktop/Capture and all Scanners/Fax maintenance. TSCTI grabs this contract from HCL who had this contract for 4 years.

State of WA - Department of Retirement System

TSCTI won a Web Development and maintenance contract from the State of WA Dept of Retirement System. TSCTI will be developing and maintaining internet web site content, reviewing web pages and documents for technical content, and for providing technical training and assistance to DRS junior page developers.

State of WA : Department of Transportation

TSCTI won a database management contract from the State of WA - DOT. TSCTI is supporting various databases at WSDOT. The scope of work will include Implementation of data architectures, security policies, and data extraction and loading routines.

State & Other Awarded Projects

TSCTI won a Project Management contract from the Department of Human Resources, State of Oregon, CRIMS project

TSCTI will work with the Criminal Records Unit to gather additional requirements for a Criminal Information Management System (CRIMS) from different vendors and different states. TSCTI with the Criminal Records Unit will begin a second evaluation of other state and vendor systems. TSCTI will lead the effort to do the environmental scan of the potential systems, compare them to the existing use cases and requirements, and will make a recommendation for moving forward with this Project.

State of NC : A & T State University

TSCTI will provide technical expertise, support to the campus faculty, staff and students. TSCTI will also provide service to the Support Services department of the Division of Information Technology and Telecommunications (DoIT). TSCTI will be assisting clients with their technical problems in regards to any of the University's supported software platforms including, Windows and MAC based Operating Systems and PC based software computing platforms.

TSCTI has been involved by OST Global for infrastructure consulting and implementation of a new Data Centre using Blade technologies

Due to rapid growth, OST Global was planning to revamp their infrastructure and build new Data Center with blade technologies. As part of this initiative, OST Global has engaged TSCTI for Infrastructure consulting and implementation which will include new Windows Blade Infrastructure setup, SAN Storage setup, Windows Server 2008 Installation, Virtualization and setting up Virtual servers, Active Directory design, setup and migration, MS Exchange migration from 2003 to 2007 and migration of existing Sharepoint 2007 environments to new Blades. It also includes coming with solution for Archiving, Anti Virus and Anti SPAM.

State of NC : Employment Security Commission involved TSCTI for getting services for the development of a Windows client application

The Employment Security Commission involves TSCTI to provide application development services for a Windows client application. TSCTI will work with ESD staff to design and develop new applications. TSCTI will provide application design, planning and development with creation of graphical user interfaces and code development that address business needs. This project will also be involved with developing time estimates and identifying project milestones so as to define efficient cost & time optimized results.

CPA, TX assigns TSCTI with ACD System modification Implementation Project

TSCTI will work towards the development and implementation of modifications to agency wide Comptroller's Automatic Call Distribution (ACD) system. TSCTI will also be working in the development of ICM routing scripts and Studio VXML applications for ACDs with configuration of telephony applications such as automated attendant, web attendant, interactive voice response and research and integration of new ACD applications into the existing environment.

State of Maryland : Two long term contracts won by TSCTI with Administrative Office of the courts for Court Case Modernization

- a) TSCTI won the project with the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), MD. This is a one year contract under which TSCTI will be providing Analysis and programming support for Court Case Management modernization, support of Domestic Violence Central Repository, Warrants Data Exchange with DPSCS, ongoing Progress programming support for Civil, Criminal and Juvenile UCS modules statewide and support the daily process of reporting the restitution judgments from UCS to VINE . The services will include programming, data migration, reporting, maintenance, trouble shooting and ongoing support for these projects using Progress technology, UNIX/AIX, Oracle, PL/SQL, JavaScript and XML.
- b) TSCTI will develop several DOS/Windows based applications to assist the Maryland Judiciary in carrying out its daily business. These applications will be created utilizing a variety of technologies including Clipper, Foxpro, MS Access, Paradox, Oracle, C++, C#, and Java. JIS and TSCTI are in the process of creating several new applications to replace current applications into a new n-tier architecture utilizing Java and Oracle enterprise technologies.

TSCTI wins a Web Development project for the UAE Embassy

TSCTI's consultants are involved in Web Development for UAE Embassy. TSCTI is doing this project as SRA sub and will have extensive use of software skills like Drupal, PHP and MySQL.

CPA, TX awards another project to TSCTI

TSCTI will perform advanced analysis, design, and programming of Adobe Forms in conjunction with the Franchise Tax Project. Project involves analyzing of existing forms, documentation, requirement gathering and documenting the requirements, designing form changes, and programming form changes.