

22nd Century Technologies (TSCTI) won United Nations Sharepoint and Web Application Support Services contract

UNDP with global development network in 140 countries, awarded multi year Sharepoint and Web Development services contract to TSCTI . UNDP has a large number of systems, both corporate and business-unit systems, covering a variety of technologies that support UNDP's operations. Under this contract, TSCTI will be involved in design, architecture, development, QA, deployment and maintenance of various UN Content Management Systems, Social Networking Systems, Business Decision Support Applications (Dashboards / Portals) and Knowledge Worker Support Applications (KM / Collaboration). Technologies includes Sharepoint Portal Server (MOSS), Microsoft .NET, Adobe Macromedia Cold Fusion MX, Google Search Appliance, AJAX / Javascript / XML / XSLT and PHP.

Recent Federal Wins

TSCTI wins SharePoint development Project at The Bureau of Reclamation (BOR), Yuma Area Office (YAO)

The Bureau of Reclamation (BOR), Yuma Area Office (YAO) awarded SharePoint development Project to TSCTI and TSCTI's consultants will be responsible for design, development, and implementation of document management using SharePoint 2007 and converting business processes into SharePoint 2007 workflows for both intranet and external internet portals.

TSCTI Wins the Development Database Administrator Support Services Project with Veterans Health Administration's (VHA), Dept. of Veterans Affairs (VA) Health administration Center (HAC)

TSCTI will be managing several databases including EDI and Healthcare Claims Processing Oracle databases which include server management, Redhat Linux operating systems, Oracle database and application server products, business and technical requirements documentation and Health Information Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) compliant IT systems design that lead to successful IT development and systems implementation.

Naval Hospital -NHTP awarded Tier 2 desktop support contract to TSCTI

Under this contract, TSCTI will provide Tier 2 desktop support for the Information Management Department (IMD). Tasks includes configuration and installation of desktop and laptop operating systems, install software applications and hardware devices on Information Management systems

TSCTI bags Air Force District of Washington Project as Woolpert Teaming partner.

TSCTI's consultants are providing subject matter expertise and professional support in performing the performing OSP/ISP Plant-In-Place (PIP) data collection processes and "as-built" data capture products for Air Force District of WA (AFDW) telecommunications facilities and assets.

TSCTI Won Helpdesk Project at United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), Office of Information Systems and Technology

TSCTI's consultants are providing provide daily technical support for telephony, voicemail, video/audio conferencing, and web based billing support to UNDP HQ staff under the general guidance of the Chief, Global Telecommunication Services, and supervised by the telecommunication Manager

State & Other Awarded Projects

State of Vermont awarded MOSS 2007 Assessment contract to TSCT

Department of Information & Innovation (DII) and its business partners for State of VT have set up Enterprise level MOSS 2007 infrastructure. The current infrastructure farm has around 15 virtual servers and about dozen site collections and is currently growing. DII is looking to provide SharePoint support for existing Infrastructure support. The scope also covers any enhancement to the existing farm. DII has chosen TSCTI to do the initial assessment for their MOSS 2007 infrastructure. TSCTI will review MOSS infrastructure for capacity, scalability, high availability, backup/recovery and performance.

COBOL Application Development Project Awarded from Clark County, Nevada

Ryan McFarland RMCOBOL85, provides Clark County with basic functionality to support the department's intake, case management, and financial management processes. Under this project TSCTI's consultant will gathers and analyzes information regarding system and requirements, develops and modifies Ryan McFarland COBOL written programs.

State of North Carolina: Apex Software development Project Award at Department of Public Instruction

The Department of Public Instruction (DPI) has awarded Child Nutrition Direct Certification/ Verification Enhancement Project .The technology being used is Oracle Application Express (APEX) rapid web application development tool for the Oracle database. TSCTI is responsible for application design and analysis, business rule identification and validation, Oracle APEX application development, code documentation and unit testing and report creation and validation.

TSCTI won another Network Administration project award at California Prison Healthcare Services.

The California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), California Prison Healthcare Services (CPHCS) has awarded a Network Administration

State & Other Awarded Projects

project to provide Support various internal and external systems including, but not limited to, CDR, eUHR, D&T and other CPHCS IT projects, as assigned and will work under the directions of CPHCS's Deputy Chief Information Officer.

TSCTI wins a contract with State of Texas - Department of State Health Services

TSCTI is responsible for the design, development, maintenance of various computer applications supporting a SQL environment and also analyzing and evaluating technical SQL systems to assess effectiveness and to formulate new or improved technical solutions.

TSCTI bags 2 Network Administration Projects with Wayne County, Michigan.

TSCTI will provide services and support for the County's technology infrastructure under the supervision of Manager of Network Operations, Department of Technology which involves developing, implementing, and maintaining large enterprise-wide application systems or complex networks of microcomputer, telecommunications, automation systems or business requirements analysis.

Mississippi Department of Human Services (MDHS) awarded Application Development Project to TSCTI

TSCTI is providing .Net Programming Services for the Division of Community Services Weatherization Project for the Mississippi Department of Human Services (MDHS). TSCTI is also responsible for technical support for servers dedicated to the MDHS Weatherization Application.

Application Development Project award from South Carolina Department of Social Services.

TSCTI's Consultants will review Detail System Design documents and source program code in a professional Microsoft Windows and Web environments to ensure that predetermined standards have been met and that the products align with the General System Design approved by the State. The emphasis will be on adherence to standards, naming conventions, and the consistency and completeness of the documentation and related products.

TSCTI won the SharePoint Development Project with West Virginia Office of Technology.

The Office of Security and Controls, Project Management Office (PMO) of the WV Office of Technology (WVOT) has awarded a SharePoint Project to provide Microsoft SharePoint Administration and Development Services which involves Creating, managing and deploying Workflows built on Microsoft Windows Workflow Foundation using Microsoft Office SharePoint designer and Microsoft Visual Studio.

Rhode Island State Division of Information Technology awarded requests Oracle Financials Project to TSCTI

TSCTI is implementing the ISupplier module as part of its Oracle E-Business Suite implementation called RI-FANS. Currently, the State has an Oracle E-Business group, and Oracle DBA and a UNIX support group. TSCTI will work with these three groups to deliver a functioning ISupplier Module.

Arapahoe County, CO IT department Awarded Desktop Services contract to TSCTI

TSCTI will be responsible for the deployment and replacement of PC's, laptops, and printers following guidelines for deployment process, work independently and provide excellent customer service.

TSCTI won Helpdesk Project at Boulder County, Colorado

TSCTI will Assist the Boulder County Service Desk team with changes to PC settings and Windows XP Updates at user locations across Boulder County.

TSCTI bags Database Development Project with Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA)

TSCTI's Consultants are involved in Developing Oracle/SQL/Java Application for the system Integration, developing system and sub system architecture, training staff on the management of integration and System administration.

Yet another win at City of Phoenix - Aviation Department, AZ Sharepoint based Web Content Management Project

TSCTI will support the City of Phoenix - Aviation Department's customer facing internet and internal intranet site by analyzing current web maintenance processes and recommend strategies for improvement and translating user concepts into functional web pages consistent with the Aviation Department's overall branding. Sharepoint will be used as Content Management Systems.

California, Administrative of Courts has awarded Application support Project to TSCTI

Information Services Division (ISD), a division of the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) has awarded Sustain Justice Edition (SJE) Application Project and TSCTI is providing support and analysis for the ten California Courts that have their Sustain Justice Edition case management system residing at the California Court Technology Center (CCTC), also supporting and maintaining the Sustain Justice Edition configuration and interfaces.

Recent Contract Vehicle Wins

- » Temporary Employee Staffing Services, Workforce Solutions Upper Rio Grande, Texas
- » Web Application Support Services and Operations Services, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), Office of Information Systems and Technology, Bureau of Management.
- » Web and Database Consultant Services, Houston-Galveston Area Council, Texas.
- » On-Call IT Consulting Services, Snohomish County, WA
- » IT Consulting Services (IDIQ-CQ-10015), WMATA, WA DC
- » Department of Information Services, Washington State wide IT staffing contract Won 3 more categories.